

STRENGTHS & COMPETENCIES FOR LEADERS

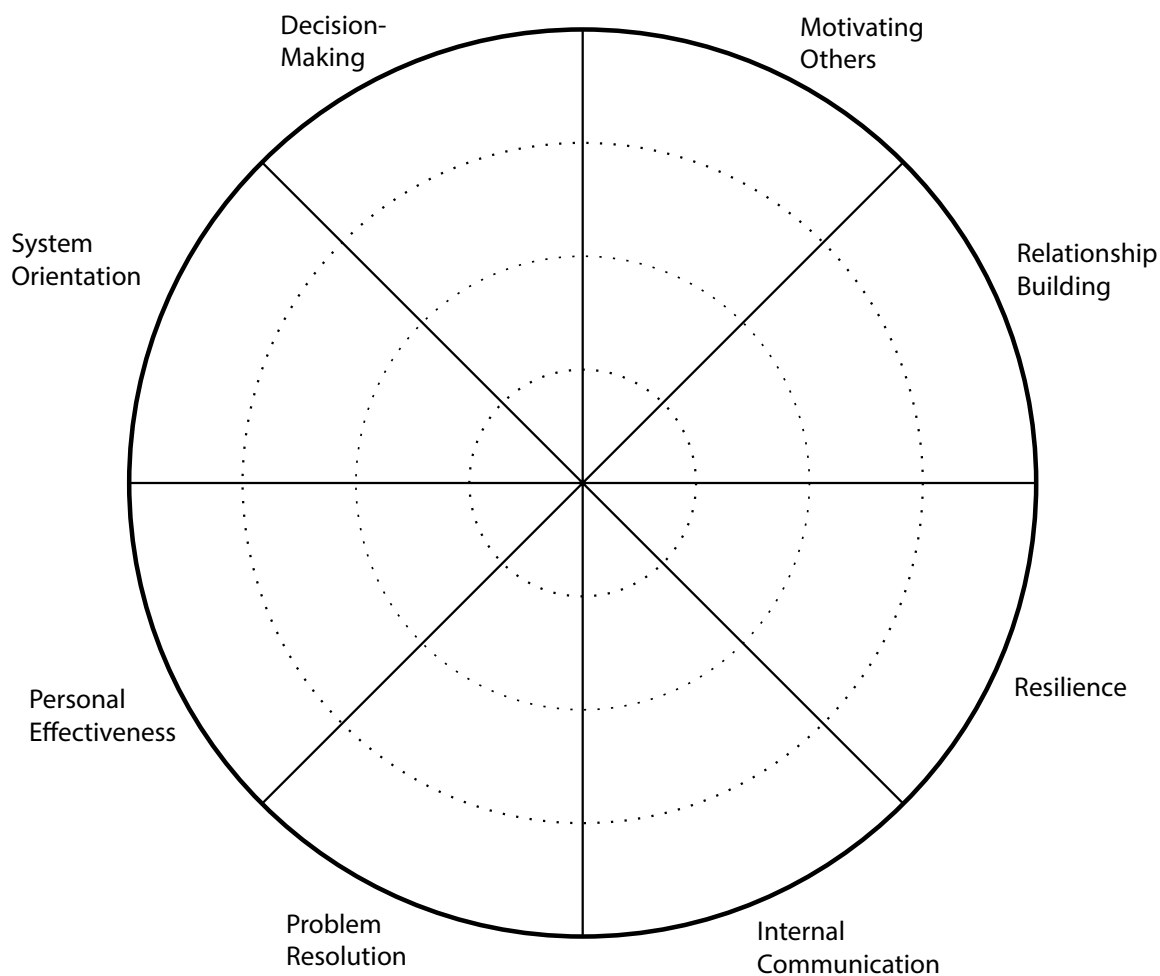

A competency is a combination of knowledge, technical skill, cognitive abilities and personal traits.

Everyone has aspects of the job in which they excel, aspects which they perform adequately and aspects of work that offer opportunities for growth.

In this Wheel, the center is 0 (not at all) and the outer rim is 100% (outstanding). Each dotted circle represents 25%. Print out this page and consider how you perceive yourself and how effective you are according to the responses of your colleagues. Using a dotted line, for each sector indicate your degree of competency in each of these aspects of leadership.

What aspects of leadership are strongest?

What are your opportunities for growth?

What is missing from this wheel that needs attention??
